

ROAD TRIP The Ides of March

George Maciunas “Single Card Flux Deck”

Courtesy MMOCA

I'll bet some of you are experiencing post-Christmas, cabin fever... the “I've got to get out of here” blues. Well MATA have a cure for you. Join us for an Ides of March trip to Madison on Saturday, March 13th. We're going to visit the capital to view the Wisconsin Youth Art Month exhibit. Then we'll move to the Madison Museum of Contemporary Art to check out the Cage and Cunningham exhibit as well as an exhibit called American Pie: Symbols of Americana. We'll start off by meeting at 10 am. at the park and ride on Barker Rd. and Bluemound Rd. in Waukesha. Look for a MATA sign in the parking lot. From there we will car pool to Madison and go to Hawk's Bar and Grill at 425 State St., next stop, the YAM exhibit and the Madison Museum of Contemporary Art.

So mark your calendar and join us for a fun trip. It's a chance to meet some new MATA friends and enjoy the fellowship of some old ones. For more information: Jim Dietz at 414-405-8201 - jbdietz@wi.rr.com or jdietz@martinlutherhs.org